The operations of the various banking systems throughout the country. lucing changes in the currency, contracting and expanding at times, as any local influence may arise, and regulating our internal and external commercial affairs more than any other thing. Our markets are opened or closed to the introduction of foreign manufactures, in proportion to the value of our circulating medium, and a reduced rate of duty and an expanded currency, would increase our importations to such an extent, that we should have a surplus revenue, so long as these two systems existed. The currency of the country must be reduced simultaneously with a reduction of the tariff; and he adoption of a specie system by the General and State Governments, would produce a healthy state of things throughout the country, give us the central of our own arkets, place our manufacturing interests upon a more solid basis, and keep up a uniformity of prices in all sec tions of the country Old Stock Exchange

Boston, June 26th, 1815.

New York.

Das. G. Benjamin Smith:

Dear Sw.—The object of the present is to inform you that a small paper called "Family Doctor," has been gratuitously circulated in the city by C. V. Clickener, a discharged agent of Dr. Brandreth's. I caclose you one. I more particularly refer you to least page. I am preparing matter for the press, and will soot selence him, as he has no character to lose. I am disposed to spend ten thousand dollars, rather than not have this matter righted, as I know yours is the standard medecine—Yours, very respectfully.

Dr. G. Berd, SMITH:—

DR. G. BENJ. SMITH:—
Dest Str—The letter published in the "Family Doctor." purporting to have been written by me to C. V. Chekener, in December, 1844, has been so without my knowledge or approbation. I believe that you were the first, by about a year, to make and ntroduce to the public. "Sugar Coated Pills," and are following your business with honorable and praiseworthy exertions.

Yours, &c.

OATH BEFORE THE MAYOR, IN 1844.

State of New York: City and Cousty of New York, ss.

E. G. Benjamin Smith, within named, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that he is a citizen of the United States, and resides in the city of New York and that he is the original inventor of the within mentioned. Sugar Coated Pills, and that to his knowledge or belief, the said Pills had never been manufactured or sold by any person except by himself or his authority; and that the statements contained in the within paper are true.

Sworn before me, this 14th day of June, 1844.

JAMES HARPER, Nayor of the City of New York.

The above was sent to Washington with our specification and application for a Patent—the following is the reply:—

Received this 17th day of June, 1841, from Dr. G. Besjamin Fimith, the fee of Sio, paid on his application for a Fatent for a "Pill Coated with Sugar."

H. L. ELLSWORTH Commissioner of Patents.

Clickener now has the hardshood to claim a Patent for his Firls. We wree to Washington on the 19th of November, 1814, and received this reply, long af er he pretended to have a patent.

Patent Oprice, Nov. 21, 1844.

Deer Sign-Wong of the 18th.

Dear Sir—Yours of the 19th, with Clickener's advertisement, is received. On examination there is no cavest or application this office by C. V. Clickener, and consequently no fatest has ever been granted him. From the enclosed Patent Laws you may judge how far he has violated the laws of the United States.

MR. GEO. STEVENSON'S STATEMENT.

New York, June 26, 1845.

I knew of Clickener's coming to Dr. Smith's several times in April and May, 1841, I dined with Dr. S. most of the time; in noticed Clickener called three times while he (Dr. S.) was at dinner.

GEO. STEVENSON.

Ceara street, New York,

We have many affidavits and names, but as Dr. Smith's ricends are determined to arrest Clickener, they will not be here used. For further information as to his character, we refer the public to Dr. Brandreth also, to Mrs. Hacper, and others, from whom he has obtained Fatent Medicines on Commission, pretending to introduce New.

Received from Dr. G. Benj. Smith, one dozen. 'Chiosee Hair Erudicator,' which I agree to pay for, when sold, at the rate of six dollars per dozen bottles, or return.

The above receipt, which Dr. Smith now hold, shows whether Clickener knew him.

WYNKOOP & CO.'S COMPOUND TONIC MIXTURE—For the cure of Fever and Ague, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers.—The proprietors of this medicine having the greatest confidence in its virtues, have been induced to offer it to the public, with the assurance that it will effect a speeds and perimanent cure of that distressing complaint. It is highly recommended, and has been extensively used with distinguished success in relieving many of those who are suffering under this accourage of our country; when used according to the directions, has Ne VER FAILED of effecting a permanent cure in the most obstinate stage of the disorder. Persons of weak stormach and children may take it without the least difficulty, it strengthens the stormach and digestive organs, induces an appetite, and seldom requires more than one bottle to effect a cure. It is purely vegetable, and contains nothing injurious to the most delicate constitution. We offer the following testmonials from two physicians who have used it in their practice with uniform success:—

GENTS—I have used your medicine, called "Compound Tome Mixture," in cases of Fever and Ague, and have found it to answer the purpose better than anything I have ever prescribed in my practice. I have used it when employed as Assistant Surgeon in the United States Navy, on different stations, and when we have had as many as forty or fifty cases on the sick list at one time, and it has atways proved successful. I recommend this article from a certainty of its effects and a preference over all other articles in medicine for that distressing complaint.

WASHINGTON, July 10, 1848.
The 49th parallel—yes, sir, the 49th parallel has actually been under serious consideration by Mr.

Buchanan as the Oregon compromise line. A compromise on Oregon, where there should be "no comromise but at the cannon's mouth." Mr. Buchanan now says that he does not know that our title is so clear as might be beyond the 49th parallel; and this in the face of his speech in the Senate during the session of '43-'4, that he held our title indisputably clear to the latitute of 50° 40'. But no compror of this kind will answer. It cannot be cons The disposition of the Cabinet as exhibited, to swerve from the "unquestionable right" to the consideration of a compromise line will of itself awaken the indignation of the country, particularly the great west, and materially weaken its confidence in the stability and energy of the Administration. If the Administration would escape a premature desertion, there must be no compromise on the Oregon question. None. Whether the instructions to Mr. M'Lane authorized him to compromise to the 49th parallel, we cannot say, but we presume he is to hold himself in abeyance for the action upon that subject on this side of the Atlantic.

The Cabinet were not, as we are informed, in Council to-day, having closed their consultations upon the subject of the instructions to Mr. McLane, and the instructions to our fleet in the Gulf of Mexco, &c. The disposition of the Cabinet as exhibited, to swerve Council to-day, having closed their consultations upon the subject of the instructions to Mr. McLane, and the instructions to our fleet in the Gulf of Mexco, &c.

The runaway negroes from Prince George's county, Maryland, who in a body, now stated at 70 strong, moved off northward a few nights past for the free States, were brought, or the main body of them, some 40 in number, through this city this morning under a strong guard, on their return to their masters, having been captured in the adjoining county of Mentgomery. The military who went out in pursuit of them from Rockville, were compelled to fire upon them, and some six or eight were wounded, and one dangerously, who it is reported this evening, will die. One, it is reported was killed.—They had retreated into a swamp.

The Lancaster Fencibles, accompanied by the City Light Infantry, visited Mount Vernon to-day, but were restricted by the proprietor, Mr. Washington, to a walk around the tomb of "Pater Patriae," being denied the privilege of entering the house, or any general reconnoissance of the premises. Indeed, it appears there was some parleying before Mr. Washington would allow the company to land from the steamboat, and that they were only allowed to land by capitulating to terms unnecessarily rigid and contracted. The complaint against Mr. Washington, respecting his harsh and dictatorial treatment of strangers visiting the sacred domains of the Father of his country, is universal. The constant inconveniences to which, however, he is subjected, from the daily companies of visitors, is enough to try his patience. The truth is, the government should purchase the property, and open it, and preserve it for the benefit of the public. Returning from Mount Vernon, the Fencibles and the Infantry dined per invitation at Brown's Hotel, the Mayor of the city, Col. Seaton, presiding, after which the former company repaired to their lodgings at Coleman's, and the latter to their wives and children. The Fencibles, to-morrow morning, move off homeward, in the six

The trial of McNulty is now fairly commenced. When the jury were sworn to-day, the clerk asked of the prisoner, "If the gentleman pleaded guilty or not guilty." Col. McNulty replied that as to the "gentleman," he pleaded guilty, but as to the indictment, as it was an indictment of errors, not guilty. Mr. McCulloh of the Treasury, and Mr. Ayres of the Bank of America, New York, were examined for the prosecution, the latter witness not having closed his testimony, when at near five o'clock, the court adjourned till to-morrow. There is considerable interest excited as to the result of this trial, and strong hopes expressed of the acquittal of the prisoner, but we shall see.

Washington, July 10, 1845.

The Criminal Court, pursuant to adjournment, met at 10 this morning, and at 10; the petit-jury were called together, and the case of C. J. McNulty, late Clerk of the House of Representatives, midiced for embezzlement of the public moneys, came up according to arrangement.

Mr. Frenall, for the prosecution, wished to make a preliminary statement to the court.

Mr. Carliel, the newly engaged counsel for the defence, desired also to make a request upon the court before proceeding to this trial. The learned counsellor stated his unfitness for satisfactorily conducting this prosecution upon all the indictments, as he had had no sufficient opportunity of going freely into an investigation of the facts and circumstances connected with the cause. Mr. C. therefore proposed, for the present, to take up case No. 43 upon the docket, upon which he had thought he had fully prepared himself; the case of the alleged transaction with Thomas Moodie of Ohio, involving the embezzlement of the sum of $750, as set forth in the indictment.

Mr. Franall, stated that several material witnesses in New York city, who had been subpensed to appear and testify in this trial, and who were indispensable to the

Mr. Fendall stated that several material witnesses in New York city, who had been subpensed to appear and testify in this trial, and who were indispensable to the prosecution in this indictment, were not present, to wit: Messrs. There were present, Mr. Ayres, Mr. Orville Hungerford, Mr. Burkle, and Mr. Charles Suydam; but the others would be indispensable witnesses, and therefore Mr. F. proposed to proceed with the whole case, upon the indicements generally, until such time as the aforesaid absent witnesses could be brought forward upon said absent wheeses could be brought forward upon this indictment, upon the alleged transactions with Thomas Moodie.
